The good news is what you read on this page yesterday: As the result of four Act 9 bond issues totaling $5,800,000 supporting new and existing industry our area will have gained 1,290 industrial jobs by the end of 1972.

Times and public thinking have changed in Arkansas the last four decades. The Star promoted tax exemption and bond issues for industry back in the 1930s at a time when the voters and the Little Rock newspapers thought differently.

Eventually the trend came our way. Granted it could be a dangerous policy to underwrite private business with the public's credit—but the policy has worked successfully because local people everywhere have exercised caution, and thoroughly investigated the character and credit of loan applicants.

In a few cases there have been defaults—El Dorado and Magnolia being two examples—but other industries quickly moved in to use the facilities for which bonds were floated, and the taxpayers escaped unhurt. I think this is a marvelous record.

The bad news—also reported yesterday—is that Hope is preparing for a federal Urban Renewal project to the tune of 3 million dollars. These being federal debt dollars you can understand how your editor feels about it. I don't understand why the taxpayers of America, faced with an ever-climbing federal debt, should be further burdened to change the looks of cities.

It isn't that Hope is just one of thousands of small towns to which grants will be made—but the sad fact is that for every dollar Hope gets, some metropolitan center will get hundreds or thousands.

In the capitalistic society America is supposed to represent it is generally assumed that owners will improve their property or sell it and let someone else make the improvements.

Had we started the "urban renewal" idea back in colonial days the story would have run something like this:

River and canal boatmen were the original prime transports. As the railroads replaced them we would have subsidized all the obsolete canal operations; and as the railroads began to feel the effects of highway transport we would have subsidized the railroads.

At that I'm not sure we aren't doing this very thing in setting up the Amtrak system for rail passenger service. In that case, Arkansas is footing part of the subsidy cost although not an inch of Amtrak rails touches our state.

On Tuesday Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York City announced he would enter the Democratic primaries for President.

Here's an opportunist who makes newspaper reading a bore.

He had a transit strike coming up at home and so hurried down to Florida to make his inconsequential announcement.

Hearing Is Postponed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A hearing in Circuit Court here that had been scheduled for today over four state printing contracts has been postponed until Jan. 7 because of a death in the family of an attorney in the case.

International Graphics, Inc., a Little Rock printing firm, filed the suit two weeks ago against Secretary of State Kelly Bryant and three other printing firms. International Graphics alleged that Bryant improperly rejected its low bid on three of the contracts and awarded one each to the three other firms.

International Graphics was the only bidder on the fourth contract, but Bryant also improperly rejected that bid, the suit said.

Illinois' No-Fault
Insurance Illegal

CHICAGO (AP) — A judge has ruled Illinois' new no-fault auto insurance law unconstitutional, contending it discriminates against the poor, but state officials say they will appeal the decision and they expect the law to take effect Jan. 1 as scheduled.

Judge Daniel Covelli of Circuit Court praised the concept of no-fault auto insurance Wednesday, but objected to a section which links pain and suffering claims to medical expenses.

The law requires insurance companies to pay their clients' claims regardless of who was responsible for an accident, but a special feature limits claims for pain and suffering to an amount equal to not more than half of medical expenses up to $500 and to an amount equal to no more than medical expenses above $500.

Because the poor generally go to public hospitals where charges are low, Covelli said, they would receive actual dollar compensation less than persons who went to more expensive, private hospitals. The disparity, he ruled, would violate the constitutional rights of the poor to equal protection and due process.

"Persons with identical injuries and requiring identical medical treatment," Covelli said, "could receive widely disparate amounts of compensation for their general damages, depending on purely fortuitous factors such as where the injury occurred, which hospital was used, what doctor was employed and the wealth or poverty of the victim."

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie said, "The decision will be appealed immediately." Attorneys for the state said they would file for a stay of the injunction Covelli is issuing to prohibit the state from spending money to administer the law.

Appeals are expected to the Illinois Supreme Court, and perhaps the U.S. Supreme Court, state officials said, and the stays usually are granted in such circumstances.

Both state officials and insurance industry spokesmen said the no-fault coverage would take effect Jan. 1, because the benefits already are written into 1972 policies.

The Illinois law excludes death, dismemberment, permanent disability and permanent disfigurement from the limit on pain and suffering claims, but the limiting feature is not a universal provision of no-fault auto insurance laws.

Covelli ruled on a class-action suit filed on behalf of low-income residents of Illinois.

Master of Divinity

JOHN F. ANTHONY

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—John Franklin Anthony, son of Mrs. Graydon Anthony of Hope, was awarded the Master of Divinity degree by the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary here.

A 1969 graduate of the University of Arkansas, Anthony was one of more than 135 students who graduated from the seminary during the December 1971 commencement ceremony.

The graduation program was held Dec. 20, 1971, in the Alumni Memorial Chapel on the seminary campus. Mrs. R.L. Mathis, the only woman to ever hold a key elected position within the Southern Baptist Convention, was commencement speaker.

Prescott Native Is Agriculture Engineer

J.M. LANGSTON

LITTLE ROCK, ARK.—John M. Langston has been appointed Extension Agricultural Engineer with headquarters in the State Extension Office in Little Rock, C.A. Vines, director, Cooperative Extension Service, has announced. His appointment, effective January 3, 1972, is subject to approval of the President of the University of Arkansas.

Langston will work in the areas of electricity and housing and will develop educational programs for use by county Extension staffs. He will also assist them with meetings throughout the state and will work with the 4-H electric program, Vines said.

He is a native of Prescott in Nevada County and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Langston of Prescott. He attended Southern State College at Magnolia two years before transferring to the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville where he earned his bachelor of science degree in agricultural engineering.

At the University he was secretary and president of the student chapter of the Arkansas Society of Agricultural Engineers and belonged to the Engineering Council.

Langston will assist the present Extension engineering staff in meeting the increasing demands of the public for information on housing, electrical wiring systems, and other phases of agricultural engineering, Vines said.

Discontented Lack Numbers

By VERNON A. GUIDRY JR.

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Conservative discontent with President Nixon has become increasingly visible, but still lacking are the numbers that could bring rebellion to the ballot box.

A survey of Republican officials in nearly half the states has shown no signs of an uprising within the party.

"If they are going to be Republicans and if they don't want to support Nixon, who would they support?" asks GOP Alaska chairman Alvin O. Bramstedt, echoing a refrain sounded around the nation.

Bramstedt supplies his own answer: "They'll stick with a winner."

Indeed, the most pointed thrust to date, the announcement that Rep. John M. Ashbrook, R-Ohio, will challenge Nixon in the presidential primaries, is not aimed at shoving the President from the picture, merely to nudge him a bit—to the right.

Ashbrook's challenge adds up to a double dilemma for Republicans.

Half of it is demonstrated by Sen. James L. Buckley of New York.

Buckley, who describes himself officially as a Conservative-Republican is said to feel that the open challenge to Nixon could produce too little, indicating that the President can safely pay less heed to conservatives. Or, he feels, it could succeed too well and damage Nixon's reelection prospects.

Nixon strategists face the other half of the dilemma. If they take heart in the less than massive surge to the challenge banner, they must also consider the possibility that conservatives will extend their disenchantment to the campaign against the Democrats.

Heavy Raid Ends
U.S. Air Attacks

By GEORGE ESPER

Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — The heaviest air attack on North Vietnam in more than three years ended today after more than 1,000 combat strikes in five days, the U.S. Command announced.

Three U.S. planes were lost, five fliers listed as missing and one was rescued, the command said. North Vietnam claimed 14 U.S. planes were shot down and a number of pilots killed or captured.

The U.S. Command said one Air Force F4 Phantom was lost Sunday and its two crewmen are listed as missing. It said two Navy planes from carriers in the Tonkin gulf, an F4 and an A6, went down today, and only one crewman of the A6 was rescued.

An earlier announcement today said only one plane was downed during the five days of raids. A spokesman said announcement of the other two losses was delayed until the search for their crews was completed.

The U.S. armada of some 350 planes and other aircraft attacked MIG Air Bases, surface-to-air missile sites, antiaircraft artillery batteries, air defense radar sites and fuel and supply depots between the demilitarized zone and the 20th parallel of latitude. The northernmost attacks were about 80 miles south of Hanoi.

Hundreds of other missions were flown by support aircraft including fighters escorting the bombers to protect them against MIG interceptors, electronic planes to jam the enemy radar, command and control aircraft, reconnaissance planes and rescue helicopters.

It was the biggest attack on North Vietnam and the deepest penetration since the bombing halt on Nov. 1, 1968.

"The strikes were terminated at 3:36 p.m. today," the U.S. Command said in a statement. "A damage assessment review is in progress. When information becomes available, additional details will be provided. We have nothing further to add at this time." The sharp escalation in the air war began Sunday, one week after five U.S. planes were shot down during operations along the border between North Vietnam and Laos.

Official pilots' reports reaching Saigon said poor weather—mostly low clouds—prevented an accurate assessment of the damage done by the raids.

U.S. Birth Rate at Lowest Level

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's birth rate fell dramatically this year to one of the lowest levels in history, a preliminary estimate by the Census Bureau shows.

Population experts are puzzled by the sharp decline since an increase in the birth rate had been expected in 1971. Whatever the cause, they are hopeful it represents more than just a short-term phenomenon.

According to the estimate, the rate dropped to 17.3 births per thousand people, a dramatic dip over the 18.3 births per thousand recorded in 1970. The rate is based on an estimated 3,591,000 births this year.

Although final figures won't be in until February or March, Census officials are now almost certain their preliminary estimates will be borne out in the final count since the birth figures for January through October are known to be well below last year's rate.

Not since the years of the Depression during the 1930s has the birth rate been so low. But the 1971 estimated rate, even with a decline, still implies continued growth of the U.S. population.

Census officials are cautious about trying to interpret what the 1971 decline means, lest they be caught by a sudden upsurge in 1972. An increase had been anticipated because of the relatively large number of women of prime child-bearing age.

But they suspect it means that either women have decided to have smaller families or have postponed plans for more children for various reasons, such as the state of the national economy and fears of such things as inflation and unemployment.

Population experts are reluctant because the birth rate figures are still preliminary and the detailed breakdowns needed to make analysis are not yet available.

"I don't know why," said Dr. Murray Kendall, director of Georgetown University's Center for Population Research. "It's a real puzzle. We need much more detailed information."

He noted that the birth rate began declining in 1968 and did so steadily through 1968. Then it picked up to 17.8 per thousand in 1969 and reached 18.3 last year.

U.S., Germany
Pledge Harmony

By KENNETH J. FREED

Associated Press Writer

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (AP)

— The summit meeting between President Nixon and West German Chancellor Willy Brandt has ended just about as it opened—in a flurry of expressions of good will, pledges of cooperation and a stated determination to remain close international friends.

With one exception the predictions given newsmen by presidential aides that the talks Tuesday and Wednesday would not produce any dramatic developments came true.

The exception was Nixon's announcement as the session ended Wednesday that former Secretary of the Treasury David M. Kennedy had been nominated the new U.S. ambassador to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

With the German at his side on the lawn of the Florida White House grounds, Nixon told reporters:

"Ambassador Kennedy's presence in Brussels as former secretary of the Treasury, current Cabinet member, and the President's personal envoy represents an unprecedented level of standing U.S. representation in Europe emphasizing the priority which the administration attaches to materially strengthening U.S.-European economic, political and military relations."

Kennedy, 66, will continue as an ambassador at large, the generally undefined post he has held since he resigned his Treasury position just over a year ago.

There had been no permanent U.S. ambassador to NATO since April when Robert Ellsworth resigned.

In many respects what the President had to say about the Kennedy appointment symbolized all aspects of the Brandt conference.

The main stress, as explained by officials of both governments, was on the importance of maintaining the U.S. support of the European alliance, including continuation of the 300,000-man American military force on the continent.

With the exceptions of brief discussions concerning the Middle East, the India-Pakistan conflict and some lower level trade matters, the bulk of the Brandt-Nixon conference was taken up by East-West relations, particularly concerning Europe.

And both leaders said there were no disagreements, in fact it was just the opposite.

Accident Fatal

MARMADUKE, Ark. (AP)

— Kim Reddick, 13, of Marmaduke was killed Wednesday night in a one-car accident on a Greene County road in the New Hope community.

State Police said she was a passenger in a car driven by Lee Marshall Johnson, 17, that ran off the road and overturned in a ditch.

Five other persons were treated at hospitals and released.

Colder Weather
for Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The National Weather expects clearer skies but cooler temperatures in Arkansas through Friday.

The service said lows tonight were expected to drop into the upper 20s in the northwest section of the state to the upper 30s in the southeast. Highs Friday should range from the upper 40s across the north to the upper 50s in the south, the service said.

Fog and drizzle covered a large part of Arkansas Wednesday. Most sections had periods of light rain before a warm moved north across the state, raising temperatures. But that front has been followed by a rather rapid moving cold front.

Early morning lows today ranged from 46 at Fayetteville to 59 at Pine Bluff.

Bank in Little Rock Is Robbed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Tanglewood branch of Union National Bank of Little Rock was robbed Wednesday of $34,500, police said.

The robber was described as in his late 20s and with long brown hair. Police said the man used a pistol in the holdup.

Officers said three bank employees were on duty at the time of the robbery. There were no customers in the bank. No one was injured.

Urban Renewal to Bring
Big Change Downtown

With outlying areas especially in the I-30 area changing face the proposed Urban Renewal Project will so change the face of downtown Hope even more drastically.

When completed Second Street from Elm to Walnut downtown will be converted into a pedestrian shopping mall with no automobile traffic allowed. Main Street from Third to Front Street will be made into a semi-mall with a serpentine-type street and protective off-street parking.

Four parking lots will also be constructed in the downtown area. The first will be located at the corner of Third and Elm Streets. It will extend from the alley behind Cox Drug Store and Collier's Furniture and Appliance to Third Street, east to the alley next to the Chamber of Commerce, then north to the alley back of Owen's Store.

A second lot will be at the corner of Elm and Front Streets. It runs from the alley next to Cobb's Radio & TV service to the corner of Front Street and east 88 feet from the corner of Main Street. Another parking lot will be the corner of Front and Walnut Streets. This area will extend from the alley behind Jack's News Stand east to the corner of Walnut Street, then north to the alley behind Barry's grocery.

The fourth downtown lot will occupy the half-block at the corner of Walnut and Third Streets except for the Hope Star building and will run to the alley behind Linnbert's restaurant.

Cost of the entire Urban Renewal Project is estimated at $3,065,185 of which $2,398,000 will be provided by a federal grant. The city's non-cash local grants and aid total $715,800. Work done on Sixth Street and now being done on South Main cost of $271,000 of the city's obligation, leaving $444,800 as the city's part. However, there are many more project completed and in process that will further drop the city's obligation.

In all probability the project will get started soon after January 1, 1972 with simultaneous work on the downtown and Southeast Corner part which is the Hazel Street area.

The report suggests that the United States might learn from some Japanese techniques.

"The Japanese example of promoting large trading companies, which specialize in export development, is well worth evaluating," Peterson said.

The report confirms that Nixon will send to the new session of Congress a new "technologies opportunity program" designed to stimulate industrial research and development.

Peterson also suggested that the value-added tax, long favored by Nixon, could provide a valuable stimulus to U.S. exports as it does to European exports.

The tax is a flat levy on the value added to manufactured goods at each stage of the production process.

Domestic champagne, the bulk of which is produced in California, also was in good supply. A spokesman for the California wine growers said there had been only slight price increases since last year, the hoists depending on the type of wine.

"This is a big year for us," said a spokesman for Sherry-Lehman, Inc., a New York wine and spirits store. "Champagne is flowing like water around here."

He said some customers were buying for next year in anticipa-

Pentagon Bring In

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. Daniel Ellsberg and a former Rand Corp. colleague were accused of conspiracy today in the second Pentagon Papers indictment to be returned by a federal grand jury in Los Angeles.

The indictment, which replaces an earlier one naming only Ellsberg, was announced by the Justice Department here. It was actually returned by the grand jury Wednesday, but sealed until the second defendant, Anthony J. Russo Jr., substantive offenses under statutes on espionage and theft of government property.

The Justice Department refused to say whether the new indictment would be the last in the Pentagon Papers case. Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell had promised to "prosecute all those who have violated federal criminal statutes" in connection with the matter.

Parts of the documents, now largely declassified by the Defense Department, were published in several newspapers last summer. In a split decision, the Supreme Court re-

Didn't Collect Tax Potential

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A research report contends that Arkansas had utilized all of its revenue potential the state could have collected an additional $153,528,000 in tax revenues last year.

The report was prepared for the Southern Regional Education Board by Kenneth E. Quindry, a research professor at the Center for Business and Economic Research at the University of Tennessee.

It is a comparative review of the effectiveness with which each state uses potential tax resources available to them.

According to the report, Arkansas collected $26,906,000 more than the yield collectable at the national average rate on taxes on tobacco products, insurance, automobile licenses and gasoline.

But the report said Arkansas fell $180,434,000 below the national average on the remaining 11 tax measures employed in the state. The general property tax accounted for the greatest amount of "unutilized" tax potential. The report said it was $104,670,000 below the national average.

Sobriety Test for Party Goers

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Local police suggest that New Year's Eve parties include one of their free disposable breath testing packets.

The packets include a balloon and a tube. When a guest blows up the balloon, his breath passes through chemically treated crystals, and their changing color determines his sobriety or lack of it.

The Albuquerque Police Department says the perfect host will drive guests who flunk—but only after the host blows up his own balloon.

By Oswald & James Jacoby

Here is a reprint of our hand of Sept. 3. It was originally played by Willard S. Karn against Edward Hymes Jr., back in 1931.

The peculiar bidding is due to the fact they were jockeying for position in a rubber bridge game.

Eventually Eddy doubled six hearts and opened the king of spades. Karn ruffed; led a trump to dummy; ruffed a second spade and led a low diamond. Eddy proceeded to play the jack of diamonds. He visualized an eventual throw-in play against him if he played a low diamond and by playing the jack then and the king on the next diamond lead he made it impossible for the throw-in to develop.

This made an interesting article, but our expert readers have discovered an alternate line of play that would have brought in the slam if Willard had made it.

We were repeating the actual play. Here is the might-have-been.

Just let the jack of diamonds hold that trick. Suppose West leads the four of diamonds which is as good a play as any. Dummy's queen wins the trick and a third spade is led and ruffed. Now South runs out all his hearts coming down to the ace of diamonds, a spade and a club in dummy while he holds a diamond and the ace-queen of clubs.

The diamond is led and West must either chuck his good spade or unguard his king of clubs.

THE GENERATION GAP

OUR READERS ANSWER THE MAIL

Dear Helen And Sue:

In reply to the letter from "Wondering" who asked how guys felt about dating unwed mothers, I can only speak for myself, but I say—it makes no difference.

I dated an unwed mother for over a year. She never tried to hide the facts, and I never blamed her. My case was a little different in that I'm sterile. The fact that she already had a child made her even more attractive to me, as I wanted desperately to be a father. However, there are thousands of men like me—and I'd guess that many would feel as I do. So the fact that a girl has a child is not much of a deterrent to a good marriage (unless the guy is a prude, in which case she wouldn't want him anyway).

Our romance? It ended—for other reasons.—D.D.

Dear RAP:

This is to "Wondering": I don't know whether you kept your baby or not or whether you had an abortion, but I had to write and tell you things will be better soon.

Last year I went through your same doubts. I gave my baby up for adoption. My folks wanted me to have an abortion and when

War Buddies Are Reunited

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — A mixup in medical records led to the reunion of two former high school buddies 19 years after one carried the other from a North Korean prisoner of war camp.

The reunion occurred after a doctor discovered his patient did not match medical records while undergoing a checkup at the Veterans Administration Hospital here. The two men were in adjoining rooms.

Eugene Stanelly, 40, of Richton had last seen Charles R. Stanelly, 41, of Waynesboro when the latter carried him from the POW camp after 33 months imprisonment. Eugene had nearly starved during the internment.

"I picked him up in one hand," the 155-pound Charles said. "You couldn't believe that now, could you?"

Eugene now weighs 286 pounds.

A religious museum is planned on a 16-acre site on the Dallas-Fort Worth turnpike in Texas.

Painted Finger Points With Pride to Work

By JOY STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — Though the American Institute of Interior Designers hasn't yet asked me to join, I nevertheless point with pride to my newly decorated kitchen.

Unfortunately, the finger with which I point is still covered with paint, which turpentine, scouring powder and magic incantations have so far failed to budge.

It's okay, though, because my paint-splattered hands match my hair, my kitchen floor and my best pair of blue jeans.

It all started when I decided that the red countertops had to go, especially since the refrigerator was fronted by a huge green panel—a great combination during the Christmas season but a bit too avant-garde for my taste the rest of the year.

Copper-bottom pans hang in shiny array on the kitchen wall so we decided this should be the keynote of our color scheme. The first move was to

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — "Medical Center," CBS's entry in the doctor derby, managed a wide detour from the operating room Wednesday night: Dr. Joe Gannon was suspected of murdering a patient.

The story was the kind more often encountered in the law-and-order shows than in the hospital dramas. Just to keep in character, however, the doctor was hanging on to his black bag and stethoscope and was even seen briefly in surgery.

It was the first of a two-part episode—never very satisfying when the story is a whodunit. When it ground to a cliff-hanger halt, a suspicious detective was daring to suggest that Joe, the dedicated doctor, might have deliberately slipped his patient a lethal injection of insulin.

The plot was built around one of those tough, imperious tycoons that script writers are so fond of. This one was convalescing from lung surgery, was being indifferent to his unhappy wife and unsympathetic to his drop-out son. He also was threatening to cancel a $2-million contribution to Gannon's medical center. That made a lot of pretty good suspects to work with in the windup next week.

"Mannix" which followed involved a star comedian who seemed all heart to his adoring audience but who was mean and overbearing to associates and family. Milton Berle played the part to the hilt.

The story started with the death of a private investigator working for a comedian and, as Mannix dug into his dead colleague's activities, it turned into a blackmail case. It was rather far-fetched—so many action shows are—but Berle's presence as an actor gave the hour a special interest.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

MR. and MRS. RAMON BULLOCK

Miss Nelda Salisbury and Ramon Daniel Bullock exchanged marriage vows Thursday night, November 25, at the Garrett Memorial Baptist Church of Hope. Rev. James Salisbury, brother of the bride, of Cooper, Texas officiated at the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. E.C. Salisbury, parents of the bride, reside at Route 3 Hope. Parents of the bridegroom are Rev. and Mrs. Chester Bullock of 1128 Joy, Magnolia.

Mrs. Iris Warren, organist, provided music while the guests were seated. She also accompanied Rev. Curtis Coleman, of McNeil, as he sang the Twelfth of Never, Whither Thou Goest, and The Lord's Prayer.

Miss Evelyn Cottrell of Texarkana, attended the bride's register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected an empire gown of white bridal satin and lace. The dress featured a rounded neckline with long, slightly puffed sleeves of lace. The detachable train was of the same lace with satin trim. The fingertip veil of illusion fell from a headpiece of organza, rosebuds, orange blossoms, seed pearls, and crystals. She carried an elongated bouquet featuring an orchid surrounded by white rose buds.

The altar was decorated with a candle tree arch. Flower baskets were placed on either side of the prayer bench.

Mrs. Esther Salisbury of Cooper, sister-in-law of the bride, attended her as matron of honor. She wore a floorlength gown of purple knit and carried a nosegay of orchid carnations.

Miss Kathryn Smith of Magnolia, served as bridesmaid. She wore a floorlength gown identical to that of the matron of honor.

Gary Glasgow of Nashville, attended the bridegroom as best man. John Greene of Hope, served as groomsman.

Gilbert Loe of Magnolia and Bobby Hudgens of Waldo served as ushers and candlelighters.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Salisbury chose a beige and brown dress and jacket ensemble of double knit with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of white roses.

Mrs. Bullock wore an aqua blue dress of double knit with matching coat and beige accessories. She wore a corsage of white roses.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church following the ceremony. The three tiered bride's cake featured pink roses and was topped with three bells.

Members of the house party were Miss Marion Smith, Mrs. Judy Lee, Mrs. Gwen Allen, and Mrs. Verla Atterberry.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home in McNeil.

Decision Made--Phillips Starting for Longhorns

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
DALLAS (AP) — After weeks of agonizing, Texas Coach Darrell Royal has made a big decision: It will be Eddie Phillips at starting quarterback in the 36th annual Cotton Bowl Classic.

Royal decided on Phillips over run-sized Donnie Wigginton, who guided the Longhorns to the Southwest Conference championship after Phillips was felled with a pulled hamstring and an injured toe.

"It hasn't been an easy decision because I realize there is a lot of sentiment for Donnie," said Royal. "I was sincere when I said he (Wigginton) should have received the most valuable player award in the Southwest Conference this year. "But you've got to remember Eddie also started 12 football games for us the last two years before he was injured. I have equal confidence in both of them."

Phillips' status was one of the big question marks going into Saturday's Cotton Bowl classic against the Lambert Trophy winners Penn State.

Penn State Coach Joe Pa-

terno said, "Phillips is a great athlete. He's as good as you find at running with the football. He can find a crack of daylight and he's gone. He's a great football player."

Paterno said he plans to take a hard look at perhaps installing the Wishbone—T for the Nittany Lions this winter. He said with a slick quarterback like Phillips at the helm it's a difficult offense to stop.

"I think we'll give it a good look," Paterno said. "I honestly believe the defense is behind the Wishbone and trying to catch up."

Nets Score Win Over Condors

NEW YORK (AP) — John Roche was mad, so sore in fact that he took it out on Pittsburgh.

"I was annoyed," said the New York Nets' rookie, "that we've been losing to a team like that."

Roche made up for the Nets' two straight losses to the Condors with 13 last-quarter points Wednesday night that paced a tense 105-102 American Basketball Association triumph.

"They weren't having any trouble beating us," said Roche about the Condors' recent domination of the Nets. "And tonight they were missing their best player, too (John Briser) and I thought it was time we were due for a win."

Actually, the Nets won the first three games of the season against the Condors before dropping the next two and now lead the series, 4 games to 2.

In Wednesday night's other ABA matches, it was Kentucky 125, Memphis 111; Floridians 123, Indiana 112; Virginia 126, Carolina 117 and Utah 106 Dallas 102.

Roche admitted that his performance Wednesday night was the best so far in his brief pro career.

"When I got hot, I wanted the ball," said the cobra-quick guard. "It was the most consistent outside shooting I've done all year."

Teammate Rick Barry, who led the Nets with 33 points, agreed: "It was Roche's best performance as a pro."

Roche, who scored 18 points overall, found the range down the home stretch when New York needed his fields goals the most. First tying the game and then putting New York ahead 98-96 with 2:35 left, Roche later snapped another tie with a foul shot at the one-minute mark.

After giving the Nets a 101-100 lead, Gene Moore rebounded a misguided Barry shot and put it in the hole for a 103-100 bulge and it was all over.

George Thompson of Pittsburgh led all scorers with 34. Rookie center Artis Gilmore scored 30 points and helped throttle a late Memphis rally to record Kentucky's victory.

The Colonels, the Eastern Division leaders, took a 105-86 lead midway through the final period and Gilmore went to the bench. But Memphis rallied and closed the gap to 109-97, so Gilmore returned to hit a basket and free throw and block one Memphis shot to stem the Pros' comeback.

Larry Jones and Ira Harge broke open a close game with nine straight points midway in the fourth period and ignited the Floridians over Indiana.

Virginia, led by Charlie Scott's 50 points and Julius Erving's 31, rallied in the fourth quarter to beat Carolina. The Squires, led 35-30 after the first quarter, but Carolina tied the score at 64 at the half behind Jim McDaniels.

After McDaniels led the Cougars to a 92-89 lead at the end of the third stanza, Scott went on a tear of 14 points in the last nine minutes to pull the Squires through. McDaniels had 33 to lead the loser.

Utah's victory over Dallas was its 16th straight triumph over the Chaparrals in two seasons. Zelmo Beaty topped the Stars with 31 points and 23 rebounds, but Red Robbins' nine points in the final three minutes insured the victory. Donnie Freeman led the Chaps with 27 points.

The rate of accidental firearms fatalities has been nearly cut in half in the last 40 years, according to the National Safety Council.

Alabama Blacks Like It in Deep South

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent

MIAMI (AP) — To be a black man in a white man's world—such as the Alabama football team in the heart of the Deep South—isn't exactly an inviting situation, but John Mitchell and Wilbur Jackson wouldn't trade it for anything.

"I was a little uneasy at first, but everything turned out fine—I have no regrets," said Mitchell, a 6-foot-3, 230-pound junior college transfer from Mobile, who turned down bids from Southern California and Texas to play in his native state.

"Me, too," chimed in Jackson, a willowy 6-1, 187-pound sophomore halfback from the little Alabama town of Ozark. "They treat me great. I wouldn't want to play anywhere else."

Mitchell is a starter on defense and Jackson is a speedy reserve on the unbeaten, No. 2 ranked Crimson Tide which challenges Nebraska's 31-game unbeaten streak and national collegiate football title in the Orange Bowl here Saturday night.

"They're the first blacks ever to play for the Tuscaloosa, Ala., university where campus integration created a crisis back in the early 1960s."

Mitchell, son of a civil engineer, is something of a symbol. He is Alabama's football Jackie Robinson. His coming to Alabama was a unique story in itself.

When the Crimson Tide played in the Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston at the end of last season, Southern California Coach John McKay was principal speaker at a Houston quarter-back dinner.

McKay, in his talk, extolled the virtues of a player from Eastern Arizona Junior College who he said would be playing for the Trojans the next year. Paul "Bear" Bryant, the Alabama coach, was listening.

"I got a call from Mr. Bryant," Mitchell recalled. "You know how Mr. Bear talks, so low I could hardly hear him. I just kept saying 'Yes, sir Yes, sir' to everything."

"It turned out he wanted me to come to Alabama."

Mitchell said the offer presented a challenge, so he talked it over with his mother.

"Personally, I was reluctant to go to Alabama. I didn't know what kind of reception I'd get or whether I'd ever get to play ball there. I told my mother there would be too many problems."

"But Mama said to me, 'Son, no matter where you go, you'll always have problems. Come on down here to Alabama so your mother can see you play.' "I always had a lot of faith and trust in my mother. So I entered Alabama."

Mitchell said he was amazed at the cordial reception he got. "Mr. Bryant told me, 'If you ever have any problems of any kind, come to see me.' I never had to go into Mr. Bryant's office."

Halas Fires Jim Dooley, His Hand Picked Successor

By JERRY LISKA

Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP)—An outsider may coach the Chicago Bears for the first time in the half-century history of the club, with which owner George Halas helped found the National Football League.

Halas Wednesday fired Jim Dooley, 41, his hand-picked successor, after the Bears collapsed badly towards the finish of Dooley's fourth season this year.

Halas personally announced the dismissal of Dooley, who had a 20-36 overall record, closing this year with 6-8 after losing the last five games.

"The record speaks for itself," was Halas' explanation. Halas, 76, insisted the job has been thrown wide open, with a new coach likely to be selected from his staff or from the professional or collegiate ranks.

That opened a full-tilt guessing game, with Ara Parseghian of Notre Dame and Abe Giron and Bill Austin from the Bear staff immediately being seen as likely replacements.

Halas said he'd like to name the new coach at the latest several weeks before the NFL player draft Feb. 1, adding: "He will have a free hand to name his assistants."

The Bear player reaction was in sympathy with Dooley, with Gale Sayers commenting: "I hate to see him go. I thought he was a fine coach."

"Strange as it may seem," said Halas, who yielded the coaching reins to Dooley in 1968, "we don't have any working list of candidates yet."

Halas said he told Dooley of his dismissal in a "very emotional" 90-minute conference yesterday morning.

If Halas decides to bring in a man from outside the Bear organization, it will be the first such move since Papa Bear unveiled the former Decatur Staleys as a Chicago NFL entry in 1920.

Halas was head coach, business manager and publicity man decade after decade, with a few exceptions during which he really still was commander-in-chief.

ASU, Winner at Holiday Tourney

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas State University whipped the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga 90-78 Wednesday night to capture the championship of the ASU Holiday Basketball Tournament here.

The Indians hit 56 per cent of their field shots as guard Calvin Breedlove set the scoring pace with 31 points. Breedlove hit 13 of 22 field goals including several clutch baskets in the second half.

Arkansas State commanded the backboards with a 62-39 edge as center John Belcher pulled down 15 rebounds. Belcher also scored 22 points.

Guard Ralph Simpson led UT-Chattanooga with 19 points.

Isaac Devore hit a 12-foot jump shot with two seconds left to give Midwestern University and 82-80 victory over Eastern Illinois for third place in the consolation game.

Cavaliers Really Are Leading

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Don't blink. That's no mistake in the National Basketball Association's Central Division standings. The Cleveland Cavaliers, believe it or not, are in first place.

The Cavaliers, laughing stocks of pro basketball a year ago, moved into the lead of their oddball division Wednesday night with a 103-102 victory over the Philadelphia 76ers.

That moved Cleveland six percentage points ahead of idle Baltimore and even though their record is a less than sparkling 15-23, it's a first place mark and worth every bit as much as the fancy 32-7 log that Milwaukee has in the Midwest Division and Los Angeles' 35-3 in the Pacific.

In other NBA action Wednesday, Golden State topped Cincinnati 107-102, Phoenix took Houston 124-106, and Milwaukee whipped Portland 123-84.

Cleveland's 15th victory matched its total for all of last year when the Cavaliers were so funny they even had their coach, Bill Finch, making jokes about them. They lost 67 times last year, tying an NBA record and finished a fat 27 games behind the division champion Baltimore Bullets.

Butch Beard's driving layup in the final 24 seconds beat the 76ers for Cleveland with Kevin Loughery and Hal Greer missing chances in the final moments to reverse the decision for Philadelphia.

John Johnson's 37 points led all scorers.

Milwaukee snapped a slump that had produced three losses in four games, by ripping over-matched Portland.

Kareem Jabbar scored 32 points for the Bucks and Jon McGlocklin, returned to the starting lineup, added 21. Milwaukee ran off a 24-4 spurt late in the third quarter and early in the fourth to break the game open.

Florida Is Knocked Out of Unbeaten

By BERT ROSENTHAL

Associated Press Sports Writer
Illinois' Fighting Illini knocked Florida from the ranks of the unbeaten ... and virtually kayoed the Gators' Tony Miller in the process.

The battling Illini won the Gator Bowl Basketball Tournament championship Wednesday night with a hard-earned 78-75 decision over Florida ... leaving Miller sprawled on the floor at the finish.

Miller, named the tournament's most valuable player and the game's top scorer with 31 points, was set up to take the final shot in hopes of pulling out Florida's seventh straight victory.

As he fired the ball toward the hoop, he was slammed to the court by two Illinois players. And to add insult to injury—Miller suffered a broken ring finger on his right hand during the fall—the officials ruled that he didn't get the shot off before the final buzzer and he was not awarded any free throws.

"I knew I was fouled," said Miller, "but I have no way of knowing whether I got the shot off before the buzzer. There was so much noise I couldn't hear it."

Neither Florida Coach Tommy Bartlett nor Illinois Coach Harve Schmidt would comment on the controversial play.

While Florida was suffering its first setback, top-ranked, unbeaten UCLA rolled to its seventh blasting Texas 115-65 in the first round of the Bruin Classic. It was the seventh game the Bruins have exceeded the 100-point mark.

Ohio State, the nation's No. 6 team, also posted a first-round victory in the Bruin Classic, crushing Arizona 90-47 as Allan Hornyak led the way with 27 points, 24 in the first half.

Fourth-ranked North Carolina, seeking its third championship in 10 days, beat St. Joseph's, Pa. 93-77 in the opening round of the Sugar Bowl Tournament.

The Tarheels, led by Dennis Wuycik's 21 points, face Bradley tonight for the title. The Braves whipped Purdue 72-64 in the tourney's opening game.

North Carolina won the Big Four Tournament at Greensboro, N.C. and a tourney in Spain before playing in the Sugar Bowl Classic.

Seventh-ranked Indiana, with the help of John Ritter's five free throws in the final two minutes, edged Old Dominion 88-86 for the championship of the Old Dominion Classic. Joby Wright, named the tourney's most valuable player, paced the Hoosiers with 24 points and Ritter had 23.

Southern California took third place in the Kodak Classic, smothering Rochester 88-55 as Paul Westphal poured in 24 points.

Unbeaten St. Louis University won its own holiday tourney, overpowering Chicago Loyola 87-62. It was the Billikens' fifth victory of the season and their first tournament championship since the Kentucky Invitational in 1960.

Meanwhile, a score of other tournaments conducted opening round or semifinal play, and here are the results:

Far West Classic (semifinals)—Washington State 60, New Mexico 51, and Florida State 73, Oregon State 72.

Big Eight Tournament (semifinals)—Kansas State 92, Iowa 75, and Missouri 86, Colorado 57.

All-College Tournament (semifinals)—Oklahoma City 89, Army 82, and Eastern Kentucky 89, Santa Clara 85.

Steel Bowl Tournament (first round)—Duquesne 56, Wake Forest 55, and Pitt 88, Navy 78.

Charlotte Invitational (first round)—Virginia Tech 77, Rutgers 73, and Davidson 91, Georgia Tech 66.

Poinsetta Classic (first round)—Auburn 103, Furman 78, and Clemson 67, Holy Cross 49.

Tangerine Bowl Classic (first round)—Miami, Ohio 78, Rollins 63, and William and Mary 94, Seton 67.

Evansville Holiday Tournament (first round)—Seattle 79, Evansville 68, and Murray State 90, Pacific 87 in overtime.

Garden State Classic (first round)—Lafayette 88, American University 76, and George Washington 78, Rider 69.

Thinks Oklahoma Defense Good Too

By ED SHEARER

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW ORLEANS (AP) — "That's just what I've been trying to tell everybody," said Heisman Trophy winner Pat Sullivan of Auburn. "Their defense is underrated."

"I think they have more physical talent than any team I've tried to prepare for," said the All-American quarterback shortly after the fifth-ranked Tigers arrived here Wednesday for their final workouts before Saturday's Sugar Bowl date with No. 3 Oklahoma.

While most observers have gawked at the awesome Oklahoma wishbone attack, Sullivan has been more concerned with the Sooner defense.

"People have moved quite a bit on them," Sullivan said, "but when they had to have the big play, they got it. They are big and I believe their speed and quickness is their greatest asset."

Sullivan led Auburn to nine straight triumphs this year before the Tigers were belted 31-7 by Alabama, another power that lives by the wishbone.

The Crimson Tide dominated the game with ball control, keeping Sullivan and his All-American wide receiver Terry Beasley on the sideline for 42 minutes.

"I don't think it will be that type game," said Sullivan. "They (Oklahoma) seem to score quicker."

The Sooners, led by All-American running back Greg Pruitt and quarterback Jack Mildren, are solid 11-point favorites over the Tigers, who staggered to their only defeat only two days after Sullivan was acclaimed the Heisman winner.

Sullivan acknowledged that it seemed as if the Tigers were always in a position of having to prove themselves to others.

"I feel we have one more chance to go out as winners

U.S. Justice Packages Refused, Malta Stunned Harlan Dies Act Uncivilized by British of Cancer Action

By JAY PERKINS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — John Marshall Harlan, a Supreme Court justice who repeatedly opposed use of the legal system as the machinery for social reform, is dead of cancer at age 72.

His death in a Washington hospital Wednesday prompted President Nixon to call Harlan "one of the 20th century's giants on the Supreme Court."

Harlan retired Sept. 23 after 18 years on the court. More than a month earlier, he had been hospitalized for what was first described as a backache then later acknowledged to be bone cancer.

William H. Rehnquist, a former assistant attorney general and a strong conservative also, will replace Harlan on the high court Jan. 7.

At Harlan's bedside when he died in George Washington University Hospital were Justice Potter Stewart; Harlan's daughter, Mrs. E.H. Dillingham of New York City; and three sisters.

Later, Stewart said of his former colleague: "Mr. Justice Harlan was more than just a scholarly judge. He was a human being of great worth."

"For us here at the court he was more than a learned colleague. He was a beloved brother and a noble friend."

Chief Justice Warren E. Burger said Harlan's career as a lawyer in public service was virtually unmatched.

"His careful, thoughtful opinions covering a wide range of important constitutional questions constitute a legacy to the court and the country and through these, his wise counsel will remain with us and to future members of the court," Burger said.

It was in his prolific research and legal scholarship that Harlan took greatest pride, as well as continuing a family legacy in the law and on the high court.

Harlan was the grandson and namesake of the Supreme Court Justice who, in 1896, cast the only dissenting vote against establishing the racial doctrine of "separate but equal." The high court overturned that doctrine in 1954—the year before Harlan was appointed by President Eisenhower.

New Regulations for Food Stamp Program

Alma Drew, Hempstead County Social Services Director announced today that effective January 1, 1972 there will be revisions in the Food Stamp Program, because of new regulations issued by the United States Department of Agriculture.

In view of these changes everyone that has been participating in the program should bring more money when they come in to purchase coupons this coming month.

For example, if a household of four has an income of $210, under the old plan they paid $60 for $106 worth of coupons. Under the new plan that goes into effect January 1, the same household with a monthly income of $210 pays $59 for $108 worth of coupons.

Another example, under the old plan if a person living alone had an income of $105 they paid $18 and received $28 worth of coupons. Under the new plan this same person will pay $18 and receive $32 worth of coupons.

Under the old plan where there is a two person household with an income of $200 per month they paid $36 and received $56 worth of coupons.

The rejected packages were mailed in August and October, Friedheim said.

The packages were returned to the U.S. Postal Service by the Soviet Postal Administration, which has been the medium through which letters and packages have been routed to Vietnam.

The rejected packages are being processed by the Postal Service in New York and will be returned to the senders in the next few days, Friedheim said.

The Pentagon spokesman noted that there has been a sharp decline in the volume of letters from U.S. prisoners during 1971, a total of 1,500 compared with almost 2,700 last year.

Friedheim recalled that Hanoi has announced it would accept an 11 pound Christmas package for each prisoner but that "we have no confirmation that the December packages have reached the prisoners."

CLASSIC CONTEST!

Nebraska-Alabama Orange Bowl Meeting Is Matchmaker's Dream

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
Father of the Bowl Games

Egad, friends, the moon over Miami has never shone on such a glittering array of football stars as it will this New Year's night when Nebraska and Alabama clash in the Battle of the Century.

But that—kaff-kaff—is only one of seven outstanding contests slated for the long New Year's weekend.

Since many, many of you have written asking for my Bowl forecast we'll get right to the point. Some of the predictions will astound you—um-kumph!

PEACH BOWL
Dec. 30, Atlanta, Ga.
Georgia Tech 24, Mississippi 22. The improving Yellow Jackets, victors in four of their last five games, are the surprise choice of the Hoople System to upset favored Mississippi. Leading the way for Bud Carson's Ramblin' Wreck will be the talented quarterback Eddie McAshan.

GATOR BOWL
Dec. 31, Jacksonville, Fla.
Georgia 38, North Carolina 27. In the Battle of the Brothers' Dooley, Vince's Bulldogs have the edge over Bill's Tar Heels. In a thrilling offensive show, Georgia's outstanding runner-passer Andy Johnson will spell the difference—har-rumph!

ASTRO-BLUEBONNET
Dec. 31, Houston, Tex.
Colorado 35, Houston 28. Eddie Crowder's Buffaloes, rated No. 7 and losers only to No. 1 Nebraska and No. 3 Oklahoma this year, are a one-touchdown pick by the Hoople System in what promises to be a cliff-hanger.

ROSE BOWL
Jan. 1, Pasadena, Calif.
Michigan 24, Stanford 15. The Daddy of the Bowl Games matches the perfect record (11-0). Big Ten champ

THE OLD BOY HIMSELF

Wolverines and the slightly tarnished Pacific 8 champion Stanford Indians, possessors of an 8-3 record. The Indians shocked Ohio State last year, but this season the Big Ten gets revenge.

SUGAR BOWL
Jan. 1, New Orleans, La.
Oklahoma 42, Auburn 26. In a free-scoring fray, I see the Sooners with wishbone whiz Jack Mildren in the vanguard breezing past the Auburn Tigers. The latter, led by the Pat Sullivan-Terry Beasley aerial combo, will make it a good show but will be unable to stem the Oklahoma tide.

COTTON BOWL
Jan. 1, Dallas, Tex.
Penn State 31, Texas 18. We look for the point-happy Nittany Lions to bounce back from their shocking upset by Tennessee to down rugged Texas. In 11 games—10 wins

1 loss—the Lions have averaged 41.3 points per contest, while Texas has been held to an average of 27.5 points.

ORANGE BOWL
Jan. 1, Miami, Fla.
Nebraska 32, Alabama 28. Separating these two teams was a monumental task. Their ratings as the nation's No. 1 and No. 2 teams are accurately reflected in a study of the statistics. In total defense Nebraska has allowed 202.9 yards per contest, while Alabama limited its opponents to 219.7 yards. In scoring, Nebraska has averaged 39.1 points a game while Alabama registered a fancy 32.9. On balance, your favorite correspondent picks Nebraska.

And now, dear friends, before writing fins to another exciting football season, let me wish you, one and all, a happy and prosperous 1972.

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB

Hematocrit Checks Presence of Anemia

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I recently went to give a pint of blood at a local hospital but was told I would be unable to give because my hematocrit was too low. It was 39 and their minimum acceptable figure was 41. Just what does this mean? What is the hematocrit? Is it serious for it to be lower than normal? Does it signify anything wrong?

Dear Reader—The hematocrit is one way of measuring how many red blood cells you have or as a check on the presence of anemia.

The blood is composed of fluid (plasma) with cells suspended in it. Most of the cells are the red blood cells to transport oxygen. The hematocrit is the per cent of the blood volume that is made up of the cells. A tube of blood is centrifuged and the red cells settle to the bottom. The volume in per cent of the red blood cells is read off the tube. Usually about 47 per cent of the blood volume in men and a little less in women is from the cells.

A value that is too low would suggest the presence of an anemia and would warrant further testing. Or you could have accumulated excess water, which seems unlikely. If you have some bleeding, such as from hemorrhoids or an ulcer, it could cause this. It does deserve checking to see if the first reading was correct or not and, if it is, additional studies to find out what the problem really is.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I have had an anemia problem for years. I would like to have your opinion of the treatment of anemia (not pernicious).

I have been getting crude liver shots for over 15 years. There is a difference of opinion whether I am getting any iron in this treatment or whether I get iron in the B-12 if taken. I have tried iron pills off and on and they make me constipated and ill. I am older than 70 and quite active. I have always felt I needed crude liver shots, that I felt better having them.

"Why don'tcha leave some ice so we can live a little? We had plain, old, bare sidewalks all summer!"
